LAMPETER PHOTOGRAPHIC CONVENTION Saturday 29th August and Sunday 30th August 2015

The annual WPF Photographic Convention is held at the Lampeter Campus of the University of Wales Trinity St David on either the last weekend in August or the first weekend in September, depending on the eccentricities of the calendar, but hopefully giving the appearance of a second end-of-summer Bank Holiday.

And what better way could we spend this weekend than by being entertained and educated by some of the most able and experienced photographers in the country. They are all experts in their particular field of photography and can give us new ideas to expand our own photography and maybe to explore aspects we have been hesitant to experiment with previously.

As in the past, the Convention will be held in the Cliff Tucker Theatre and we have the use of the adjacent rooms for both trade stands and to display the prints entered for the competition.

Accommodation is in Lloyd Thomas Hall in single en-suite rooms. Meals are in the dining room to the rear of the hall, with self-service breakfast and lunch on both days and a three-course, waitress service dinner on Saturday evening. Tea, coffee and biscuits will be served at intervals on both days.

While most delegates arrive at the College on Saturday morning, many choose to arrive on Friday. In this case, the cost for bed and breakfast for Friday must be added to the cost of the weekend. Please refer to the booking form for details of these.

* We have worked hard to keep the price increase low, despite the general rise in costs.

In addition:

Trade Stands: There will be one or two photographic companies with us on the Saturday.

Print Competition: Each delegate can bring along ONE print to be entered in the competition. The prints will be put on display on Saturday and judged at the end of the day.

Prize Raffle: There will also be a raffle which will be drawn in the afternoon on Sunday.

Essential information

On arrival

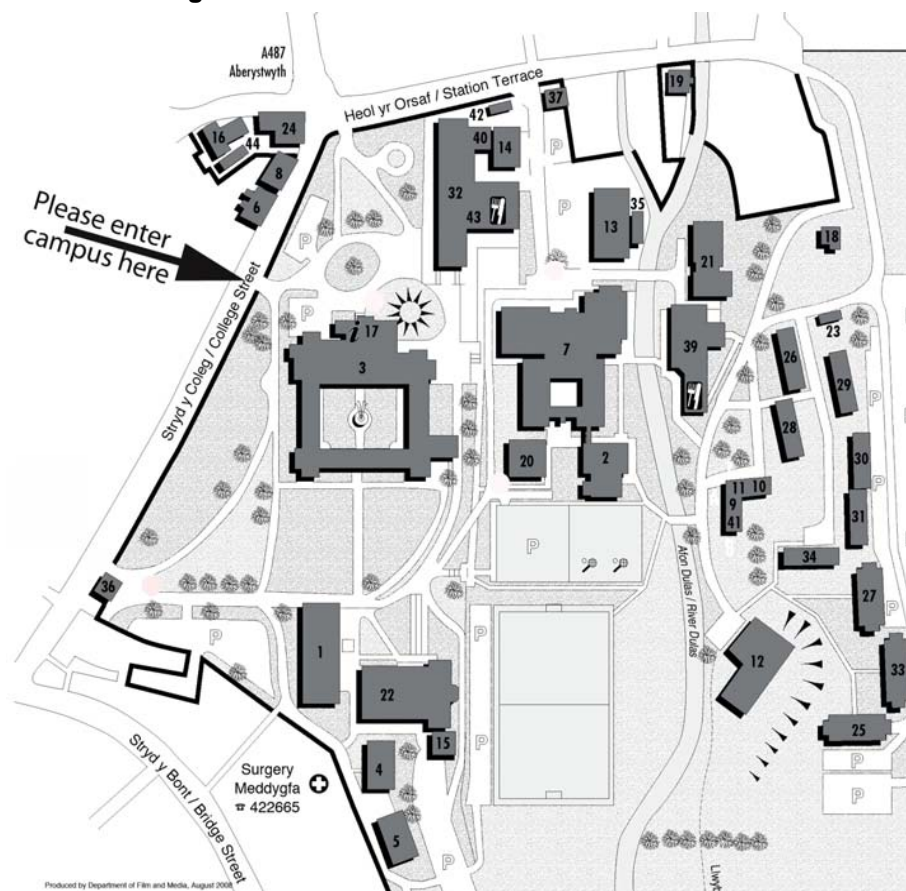

Keys to the rooms must be collected from Reception (17) in the St David's building (3) which is situated to the right when driving through the main gate.

On entering the building the office is on the right at the top of a short flight of steps. There are parking facilities on campus; please ask a member of staff on duty at the reception desk for directions.

Lloyd Thomas Hall (32) is directly ahead on entering through the main gate. The Dining Room (43) is behind the hall and reached by going down the flight of steps to the right of the Hall. The Cliff Tucker Lecture Theatre (2) is adjacent to the river and tennis courts.

For delegates arriving on Friday 28th August, there are no meals available in the college on Friday evening. However, there are a number of pubs that serve food and restaurants in the town of Lampeter.

Plan of the College

Tim Pile MPAGB, ARPS

Tim classes himself as a hobbyist photographer currently almost exclusively producing images of models, mostly nudes. Whilst producing images for the love of it, he does like to share images with others through working towards a number of UK, Irish and International distinctions, through the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB), Royal Photographic Society (RPS), Irish Photographic Federation (IPF) and Federation Internationale de l'Art Photographique (FIAP). Tim is very proud of his distinctions but explains it's the images that count and not the letters after the name. Tim's images have featured in a number of group exhibitions (salons) around the world, and have been awarded over 40 gold medals, these include The London Salon and The Trierenberg Austrian Super Circuit.

Paul Mitchell FRPS

Paul has had numerous exhibitions in London and the South East and has had articles and images published in many photographic magazines. He is a Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society and is a member of Landscape Collective UK (www.lcuk.photo/). Apart from his self published book on pinhole photography, he has also collaborated with four renowned photographers to publish "The Coast". Last year one of Paul's images was highly commended and won the Sunday Times Magazine Award in the prestigious Landscape Photographer of the Year competition.

GUEST SPEAKERS

The guest speakers at the Convention this year are, in alphabetical order:

Ben Hall

Ben Hall has gained worldwide recognition as one of Britain's foremost professional wildlife photographers. By focusing almost exclusively on the British Isles, Ben has developed an intimate understanding of our natural heritage and how best to represent it visually. His images are often surprising, always striking and ever striving to awaken people to the diversity of Britain's magnificent natural world. He is described by "Living Edge" magazine as 'a passionate and experienced wildlife photographer, with a perfectionist's eye for detail'. All of Ben's photographs are true representations of what he saw, nothing is added which is an important part of his philosophy. Ben's spectacular images have earned him numerous prestigious international awards.

Hunter Kennedy EFIAP, MPAGB, ARPS

Hunter has been a member of Carlisle CC for over 30 years but has taken his photography seriously since 2000 and by 2009 had achieved both EFIAP and MPAGB. He is a regular supporter of International Salons and is in demand in the UK as a lecturer and judge. Hunter's main photographic interests are landscape and people, preferably candid. Although there does not appear to be a website dedicated to Hunter Kennedy, there are many accolades from clubs and societies regarding his work on the net.
